KoolProjects Announces Strategic Partnership With National Trust of Trinidad and Tobago to offer KoolProjects Enterprise Project Platform To Help Showcase Heritage Conservation Projects.

Vancouver, BC, Canada (December 10, 2015) – KoolProjects Media Inc., a growing social enterprise platform that empowers project owners with a quick and easy solution to showcase and promote their projects, today announced a strategic partnership with the National Trust of Trinidad and Tobago.

“Our strategic partnership will provide the National Trust of Trinidad and Tobago access to our robust enterprise project platform so that they can showcase, market and track the progress of all their historic conservation projects” states Michelle Mollineaux, CEO of KoolProjects, “we are excited that we have been chosen by the National Trust of Trinidad and Tobago to be the exclusive platform for them to showcase their restoration and conservation projects.”

According to Kara Roopsingh, Research Officer at the National Trust of Trinidad and Tobago "KoolProjects is super easy. It gives users an easy way to explore and discover projects across the world and we're happy to be a part of the sharing process! The hardest part was choosing a password. Feels great that our small island is now visible in this way."

“The interest in the enterprise project space continues to grow with more and more organizations contacting us interested in utilizing our enterprise platform to help them promote transparency, showcase their progress and engage their customers” said Michelle, “with our platform, organizations can quickly and easily tell their project story and push their updates to their followers through social media.”

About the National Trust of Trinidad and Tobago

The National Trust of Trinidad and Tobago was established by Act No. 11 of 1991 (the National Trust of Trinidad and Tobago Act, 1991). To complete the Act prior to its proclamation, amendments were effected by way of Act No. 31 of 1999 – the National Trust of Trinidad and Tobago (Amendment) Act, 1999.

The Trust is established for the purpose of:-

- listing and acquiring such property of interest as the Trust considers appropriate;
- permanently preserving lands that are property of interest and as far as practicable, retaining their natural features and conserving the animal and plant life;
- preserving, maintaining, repairing and servicing or, arranging for the preservation of property of interest other than land and where such property of interest comprises buildings, augmenting the amenities of such buildings and their surroundings;
- making provision for the access to and enjoyment of property of interest by the public;
